Third parties	-

Description The parties agree that all discussion of topics included in the Acuerdo de Cronograma de Consenso will be based on drafts presented by each party or previously agreed third parties. They agree that in the first discussion of each topic the drafts will be read and the presenting party will provide explanations. During this session general questions can be asked and a tentative agenda for discussion developed for the future of the peace process. They agree to continue with the mechanisms of internal consultation. They agree on four variations for the discussions of the topics. They agree that sub commissions can be formed to treat individual topics.
