To promote respect for human rights and their defence, particularly in indigenous communities, MAQL will propose two members for appointment to the Commission to Overcome Violence, subject to consultation with the members of the commission and the Popular Liberation Army (Ejército Popular de Liberación, EPL). It is proposed to recommend that the commission study the conclusions of the forum on this issue held in the Pueblo Nuevo camp in April and the working document drawn up by the sub-commission for studies on human rights and indigenous rights, noting that this commission was the result of commitments previously made in the peace process. A copy of the study, paying particular attention to the aspects that merit constitutional treatment, will be passed to the corresponding sub-commission of the National Constitutional Assembly for consideration.

Pages 11-12, VIII. Regional Development Works,

The national government will undertake regional works in the municipalities of Popayán, El Tambo, Totoró, Cajibío, Piendamó, Morales, Corinto, Santander, Caloto, Jambaló, Puracé, Caldono, Buenos Aires, Toribio, Páez and Inzá. The provision of funds for each municipality and the works to be carried out in them will be decided by the departmental normalisation council for Cauca, which will have a seat for a permanent representative of MAQL. The total amount for these plans will be COP 600 million, which will be a one-off payment made using funds from the national budget (peace fund). These plans seek to benefit communities, promote the general socio-economic development of regions and channel the resources of government bodies implementing programmes in the agreed municipalities. They also seek to promote support from community and indigenous organisations for this purpose...

[Summary: The Pueblo Nuevo camp was established within the Pueblo Nuevo indigenous shelter]

Pages 12, VIII. Regional Development Works,

On account of the negotiations, the specific needs of the population of Pueblo Nuevo camp and the establishment of the guerrilla movement at the Pueblo Nuevo camp, the national government, has funded the construction of two large halls, an office and a toilet block, fitted out with the respective sanitary, water and electricity installations and a telephone line. These will serve as temporary quarters for members of MAQL and will be subsequently donated to the Pueblo Nuevo community for the use and administration decided independently by its council when they have been completed to an adequate standard.

In line with the previous commitments made to the MAQL negotiating commission, an oral health programme was implemented with government funding and there is a commitment to carry out a second such campaign for which the council will provide the necessary drugs via the instrument managed by MAQL.

The departmental normalisation council will arrange with the various official bodies the implementation of works for some of the 16 agreed municipalities identified as priority during this negotiation process. The national government will support the arrangements in the normalisation council, in line with the commitments acquired during this process.

Similarly, four segments will be broadcast on different days on the institutional programme Amarillo, Azul, Rojo.

Page 8, VII. Reinsertion Plan, Article 3a. Criteria,

In the design and implementation of the reinsertion plan, the parties will adopt the criterion of taking full advantage of the potential of MAQL members, promoting the maximum interinstitutional cooperation at the various levels of government, civil society and the community in general.

Page 10, VII. Reinsertion Plan, Article 4b. Transition Phase, Technical Training, Technical training. This part of the programme aims to provide technical training for productive projects, preferably self-managed or based on the solidarity economy. Training programmes will be designed and implemented by various government institutions (e.g. the National Service of Learning [Servicio nacional de aprendizaje, SENA]), the Colombian Institute of Agriculture and Livestock Farming [Instituto Colombiano Agropecuario, ICA] and universities), study and research centres, NGOs and foundations, in line with the specific requirements of the demobilised fighters. For these purposes, MAQL's proposals based on two training centres in Toez and Pueblo Nuevo will be studied.

Page 5-6, V. Security Plan, Article 1,

For the security of members of MAQL, the government will provide a security service comprising a total of four teams with the same level of protection. Two will be based in Bogota and the other two in Popayán. One of these teams will include the team currently providing security to the permanent spokesperson for the National Constitutional Assembly, which consists of a special vehicle and two bodyguards. The remainder will comprise one bodyguard and one vehicle. Each service will include the corresponding duly licensed arms and communication equipment. The government will allocate three bullet-proof vests for the protection of MAQL leaders.

Page 6, V. Security Plan, Article 2,

The MAQL national head of security will have a seat on the Security Plan Commission, which reports to the normalisation council, and as such, will be entitled to coordinate all aspects related to the security of MAQL members with the Criminal and Interpol Investigation Division (Dirección de Investigación Criminal e INTERPOL, DIJIN), the Department of Security (Departamento Administrativo de Seguridad, DAS) and the special fund for peace.

MAQL insists on the correct functioning of security teams, since the team for the constitutional spokesperson has exhibited irregularities.
