Description Decided to extend stay of Collective Peacekeeping Forces (CPF). Agreed to draw up plan to re-deploy CPF and called on members of CPF to take more active part in peacekeeping. Expressed concern that decision of 28 March 1997 (expansion of peacekeeping forces) remained unimplemented and agreed any further delay in process of return of refugees/displaced persons was inadmissible. Parties also agreed to seek cooperation of international community in resolving socio-economic and humanitarian problems.

... 2. To regard as inadmissible any further delay in the process of the organized return of refugees and displaced persons throughout the territory of Abkhazia and to demand urgently that the organized return of refugees and displaced persons should begin and that their return to the Gali district (within the old borders) should be completed by the end of 1998 on the basis of the mechanisms worked out by representatives of the parties, the Russian Federation and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, Only in immediate, direct coordination with the process of the steady, organized return of refugees and displaced persons, above all to the Gali district (within the old borders), should action be taken for the economic recovery of the region and the normalization of the border and customs regimes, To recommend urgently that the parties to the conflict should consider and resolve the question of the establishment, at the stage of the return of refugees and the full normalization of life in the Gali district (within the old borders), of a temporary transitional administration, which would work with the direct participation of the intermediaries, the United Nations and OSCE;

Page 2, Has decided:

... 3. That the CPF command, in coordination with the parties, should ensure the implementation of the measures envisaged in the decision of the Council of Heads of State of the Commonwealth of 28 March 1997. Within one month, on the basis of a mechanism worked out by the parties to the conflict, a plan should be drawn up to redeploy CPF, including a plan to bring the Unified Headquarters of CPF closer to areas in which CPF units are deployed, and other measures associated with the organized return of refugees and displaced persons, especially to the Gali district (within the old borders). The CPF command should devote increased attention to ensuring, in accordance with the CPF mandate, the safe operation of vitally important structures in the security zone, in particular, the Inguri hydroelectric power station, bridges, the water supply system, and so on;
