Based on the meetings between the City Council of Misrata and the Local Council of Tawagha and on the meetings and results of the committee formed for reaching an agreement. [Also based] on the statement and sheikhs of the people of the tribes of Tawagha, the tribes that inhabit them and the Provisional Facilitation Council of the city of Tawagha - dated 23 February 2012 - which includes an apology to Misrata for all proved forgetful actions on any of the inhabitants of Tawagha. [Also based] on the road map dated 18 December 2015, on the meeting of the Deferred Security Arrangements held on 8 December 2015 and on the will of the two sides to put an end to the problems between Misrata and Tawagha. [Also based on] the will to have social peace, justice, re-establishment of a state of law and to cooperate in preventing the mistakes of the past or transferring it to coming generations and the insistence of everyone on finding solutions to all obstacles making it difficult to implement the agreement into peace and justice.

Page 2, Fourth matter: General rulings

... 2- This agreement covers compensation for damages related to the following affected people, and only within [the domain of] the period of the agreement, according to the following financial values:

(A) The deceased: The amount that is due to be paid for death as a single payment. Its value is as follows: '1' Married 100,000 DL, meaning one hundred thousand Libyan Dinar. '2' Unmarried 70,000 DL, meaning seventy thousand Libyan Dinar.

... (D) Reparation of health damages: The Libyan State commits to issue a health insurance card for treatment of the injured within and outside of Libya.

Page 4, Tenth matter: Implementation mechanisms ²⁰/₂₃

The Libyan State takes all necessary measures and steps to implement the principles of this agreement. It is among its priorities to create a special fund for this issue. The Libyan State has established an independent committee in which two representatives of the shared committee participate, in order to ensure that transparency, credibility and the requirements of victims as well respect for human rights are achieved.

Missing persons

... (C) Missing persons: The amount that is due to be paid for a missing person as a single payment. Its value is as follows: '1' Married 100,000 DL, one hundred thousand Libyan Dinar. '2' Unmarried 70,000 DL, seventy thousand Libyan Dinar

Reparations Transitional justice→Reparations→Material reparations

Page 1, Third matter 28

The two sides of the agreement have agreed to the necessity of reparations as a right to compensation for the violations suffered, as well as justice, reconciliation and the return of security. They also help in realising stability, security and social peace. This is a consensual mechanism to which societies are guided for solving the differences between them. It is also what has been followed in the agreement.

Page 2, Fourth matter: General rulings

1- The period of the agreement referred to below is between 17 February 2011 and 11 August 2011.

2- This agreement covers compensation for damages related to the following affected people, and only within [the domain of] the period of the agreement, according to the following financial values:

(A) The deceased: The amount that is due to be paid for death as a single payment. Its value is as follows: '1' Married 100,000 DL, meaning one hundred thousand Libyan Dinar. '2' Unmarried 70,000 DL, meaning seventy thousand Libyan Dinar.

(B) The detainees: '1' The due value for each detainee is 334 DL (three hundred and thirty four Libyan Dinar) for every day detained, meaning 10 ten thousand Libyan Dinar every month. It will be paid as a single payment. '2' A single payment of the value of nothing else but (5) five thousand Libyan Dinar will be paid to those who were detainees for a period between a day and 15 days. '3' Those who continued to be detained or who were detained after 11 August 2011, are not included in this agreement. They are entitled to be included in the Future National Programme for reparations in the period following the agreement.

(C) Missing persons: The amount that is due to be paid for a missing person as a single payment. Its value is as follows: '1' Married 100,000 DL, one hundred thousand Libyan Dinar. '2' Unmarried 70,000 DL, seventy thousand Libyan Dinar

(D) Reparation of health damages: The Libyan State commits to issue a health insurance card for treatment of the injured within and outside of Libya.

(E) Compensation for transportation: A special compensation for transportation has been specified for limiting the relevant damage by testimony of the witnesses in the official Libyan circles. This agreement does not include compensation for fixed assets (real estates). The Joint Committee will calculate the financial value of the compensations in their statements.

4- This agreement has nothing to do with what will be compensated for damage suffered throughout the rest of 2011 and beyond, including damages as a consequence of military bombing, armed conflict, and what the Libyan State gives compensation for according to the legal steps. 28

As such, the Libyan State commits to compensate for the damage this agreement compensates for outside the time period included in the General National Programme for Reparation.

5- The injured have the right to resort to the judiciary if they find their compensation insufficient.

6- This agreement and what is said in its principles are regarded as the foundation for explaining and specifying the obligations of the two sides subject to it in the case of any differences between them.

Page 2, Fourth matter: General rulings

... 4- This agreement has nothing to do with what will be compensated for

Reconciliation Page 1, Second matter 28

The two sides agree to make all necessary efforts to realise and consolidate reconciliation, peace and social harmony between Misrata and Tawagha. [They also agreed] to raise awareness among people through workshops, the media, religious forums, meetings and different activities, about the importance of realising peace, healing the wounded and seeking to treat all the effects of the conflict. 28

The two sides of this agreement commit to work on ending all media campaigns and media coverage that broadcast killings, hatred, the embitterment of souls and encouragement of hatred.

The two sides have agreed on the necessity to take the following steps in order to realise a voluntary and peaceful return of security. These are as follows: 28
1- The agreement will be approved by the City Council of Misrata and the Local Council of Tawagha on 20 September 2016. 28
2- The agreement will be approved by the Libyan Government on 28 September 2016. 3- The fund will be established, the Fund Committee will be formed and money will be deposited to it on 15 October 2016. Tawagha is open to return [Illegible] the completion of these principles. The two sides give the Libyan State the full responsibility for realising this agreement.

Page 4, Tenth matter: Implementation mechanisms 29
The Libyan State takes all necessary measures and steps to implement the principles of this agreement. It is among its priorities to create a special fund for this issue. The Libyan State has established an independent committee in which two representatives of the shared committee participate, in order to ensure that transparency, credibility and the requirements of victims as well respect for human rights are achieved.

Page 4, Eleventh matter: Concluding rulings 29
The City Council of Misrata and the Local Council of Tawagha are considered as the two committees of the dialogue. They are the two representatives of the two sides in this agreement. They are working towards its realisation and implementation and towards following up on everything stated in it. 29
This agreement is valid once it has been signed by the two committees of the dialogue, adopted by the City Council of Misrata and the Local Council of Tawagha and authenticated by the Libyan Government. The two sides have agreed that the City Council of Misrata and the Local Council of Tawagha are working on a comprehensive solution on [urgent]1 issues. The Libyan Government is regarded as the lender and guarantor for facilitating the rebuilding process and paying the value of the relevant compensations according to this agreement. The two sides invite the United Nations, all international institutions and supporting bodies to make all efforts to support this agreement and to oversee its implementation.
