Democracy Page 10, Untitled Preamble

With the aim of achieving the objectives set forth in the Esquipulas II Agreement of 7 August 1987 and in accordance with the Oslo Agreement of 30 March 1990, the delegations of the Government of the Republic of Guatemala and the Unidad Revolucionaria Nacional Guatemalteca (URNG), having pursued negotiations under the Oslo Agreement with the Chairman of the National Reconciliation Commission, Mr. Rodolfo Quezada Tomas:), acting as Conciliator, with the participation of the National Reconciliation Commission (CNR) and with the Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations Mr. Francesc Vendrell, acting as Observer, and hereby placing on record the agreements which they have reached on the item "democratization" of the general agenda adopted at Mexico City on 26 April 1991,

Page 10, CONSIDER THAT:

1. The political forces and the various sectors which make up Guatemalan society have expressed their desire for the achievement of peace, democracy and social justice.
2. The Government of the Republic of Guatemala and the Unidad Revolucionaria Nacional Guatemalteca (URNG) have agreed to pursue a process of negotiations whose final objective is the search for peace by political means, the enhancement of functional and participatory democracy and the laying of foundations on which to build national development and progress, thereby ensuring democratic coexistence and the attainment of the common good.
3. Considering the issue of democratization makes it possible to establish a general framework within which to approach coherently the other items to be discussed in the negotiating process.
4. Guatemala requires measures which ensure the development of political, economic, social and cultural democratization. The Government of the Republic of Guatemala recognizes its responsibility to implement measures which are in the population's interest and guarantee the country's democratization.
5. The procedures and agreements resulting from the discussion of the general agenda adopted in Mexico are fundamental to the process of enhancing functional and participatory democracy, and the Conciliator should therefore inform the Guatemalan people objectively and fairly about their content.
