Page 1, 1: The Government of India and the Government of Assam have been making concerted efforts to fulfil the aspirations of the Bodo people relating to their cultural identity, language, education and economic development. Towards this end, a series of talks were held between Government of India, Government of Assam and Bodo Liberation Tigers (BLT) since March, 2000. As a result, it is agreed to create a self-governing body for the Bodo Areas in the State of Assam as follows:...

Page 1, 2. Objectives

The objectives of the agreement are: to create an Autonomous self governing body to be known as Bodoland Territorial Council (BTC) within the State of Assam and to provide constitutional protection under Sixth Schedule to the said Autonomous Body; to fulfil economic, educational and linguistic aspirations and the preservation of land-rights, socio-cultural and ethnic identity of the Bodos; and speed up the infrastructure development in BTC area.

[Summary note]: Para 10 of the Sixth Schedule of the Indian Constitution grants the District Council power to make regulations controlling money-lending and trading by non-tribals in their district. In particular, councils can restrict non-tribal money lending to those who hold an approved licence; cap the level of interest that non-tribal money lenders can charge; require money-lenders to keep accounts; inspect money-lenders' accounts; and prevent nontribals from trading in the district without a licence.
