Elections Page 2, III. ORGANISATION OF AND PARTICIPATION IN ELECTIONS, Article 6
- The political party leaders of Madagascar have reaffirmed that the principal objective of the Transition is to organise proper, transparent and credible elections for purposes of establishing the institutions of the Fourth Republic.
- They shall take all necessary measures, with the mobilisation and support of the international community, to organise presidential and legislative elections as soon as possible, and within the timescale established by the Transitional Charter.

Page 2-3, III. ORGANISATION OF AND PARTICIPATION IN ELECTIONS, Article 7
- Wishing to ensure neutrality in the forthcoming elections, the political party leaders of Madagascar reaffirm their commitment to Article 5 of the Maputo Political Agreement, which states that:
"The members of the Transitional Government shall not contest a presidential election organised by the Transition."
- In addition, they state that if the President and the Co-Presidents shall choose to participate in the next presidential election, they shall resign their functions, 60 days before the date of the presidential election.
- In the event of the situation described in line 2 of the present article, the older of the two Co-Presidents shall act as President.

Page 3, III. ORGANISATION OF AND PARTICIPATION IN ELECTIONS, Article 8
- To speed up preparations for the elections, party leaders request that the International Community organises as soon as possible the expert electoral advisory mission foreseen in article 6 of the Maputo Political Agreement and article 33 of the Transitional Charter.
