(e) All of the areas enumerated in Part V item 1 of the FAB shall undergo a plebiscite to determine the territorial jurisdiction of the Bangsamoro.
(f) Areas contiguous to the core territory of the Bangsamoro shall be included in the plebiscite if there is a resolution of the local government unit or a petition of at least 10% of the qualified voters therein. Such a resolution or petition shall be submitted to the Parties at least two (2) months prior to the conduct of ratification of the Bangsamoro Basic Law. A majority vote of the qualified voters decides the inclusion in the territorial jurisdiction of the Bangsamoro.
(g) Both Parties agree to the creation of a robust international-domestic monitoring body to be accredited by the Commission on Elections (COMELEC) to monitor the administration of the plebiscite. [...]

Page 5, II. Transition Mechanisms and Modalities, B. The Bangsamoro Transition Authority (BTA)
3. The BTA shall serve as the main mechanism for the MILF's leadership in the Bangsamoro during the transition process. Once the Basic Law comes into force, and the BTA established, the devolved powers of the new political entity are vested in the Government of the Bangsamoro.
6. The Parties agree that as a consequence of the change in the territory constituting the Bangsamoro, the Basic Law shall provide for a new redistricting or other modalities of ensuring more equitable representations of the constituencies in the Bangsamoro Assembly.

Self determination No specific mention.

The Parties agree on the following process that shall guide the transition from the status quo to the entrenchment of the Bangsamoro.

Page 1, I The Transition Process

A. Creation of the Transition Commission (TC) - The President of the Republic of the Philippines shall issue an executive order effecting the establishment of a Transition Commission. Congress shall express its support for such establishment. The Executive Order shall provide for the compositions of the TC, its authority and functions, its relationship with government agencies and branches of government, and the budgetary allocation sufficient for its operations.

Page 1, I The Transition Process

B. Operation of the Transition Commission - Once the TC is created, it shall exercise its functions in accordance with the FAB and its Annexes, and such other functions that are necessary in the performances of its mandate as provided in the Executive Order. To facilitate its tasks, it may create technical committees and a secretariat. The TC may also solicit assistance and advice from experts. The TC shall adopt necessary administrative guidelines for the speedy, efficient and effective performance of its functions.

Page 2, I. Transition Process

C. The Bangsamoro Basic Law - The TC shall work on the drafting of the Bangsamoro Basic Law, in accordance with the provisions of the FAB. The proposed Basic Law shall be submitted to the Office of the President. The President shall submit the proposed Basic Law to Congress as a legislative proposal. The bill for the proposed Basic Law shall be certified as urgent by the President.

Page 2, I. Transition Process

D. Work on Constitutional Amendments - The TC shall work on proposals to amend the Philippine Constitution for the purpose of accommodating and entrenching in the Constitution the agreement of the parties whenever necessary without derogating from any prior peace agreements.

Page 2, I. Transition Process

E. Ratification of the Bangsamoro Basic Law - the Bangsamoro Basic Law, once enacted by Congress, shall undergo a process of popular ratification by the qualified voters in the core territory of the Bangsamoro identified in Part V., Paragraph 1 of the FAB not later than 120 days from the legislative enactment.

Page 2, I. Transition Process

F. Bangsamoro Transition Authority (BTA) - The BTA shall have as its core function the preparation for the transition to the ministerial government in the Bangsamoro. It shall exercise governance functions devolved to the Bangsamoro in accordance with the Basic Law, and shall set up the institutions and mechanisms necessary to establish the Bangsamoro ministerial government.
