Local agreement properties

Process type Informal but persistent process

Rationale	-> Link to national level; no external support mechanism; culture of signing Although the agreement was not supported by any formally-established mechanism, it is clearly embedded in a culture of signing agreements in this local and in this timeframe. The agreement supports a previous ceasefire implemented in the area and is part of a choreography of documents aimed at bringing an end to violent clashes in and around Tripoli.
Is there a documented link to a national peace process?	Yes
Link to national process: articulated rationale	The agreement is clearly linked to the national process. The signing party affirms that it will "not compromis[e] fundamental principles [of the state]" and warn the factions that would like to "restor[e] the time before 17 February 2011", referring to the beginning of the Libyan uprising in Tripoli.
