We, the communities of Alafia, Douekire, and Salam, hereinafter referred to as the parties;

Recognizing the value of the charter signed on January 28 in Douekire following talks in Timbuktu and Taoudeni, facilitated by the center for humanitarian dialogue;

Have met in Tintelout as part of the mediation undertaken for 1 month by the Center for humanitarian dialogue, in support of the charter of January 2018, and agree on the following.

Description This agreement is a renegotiation and extension of existing peace charter, in which the parties agree to ensure access to roads, renounce banditry and violence, to jointly establish a natural resource management charter, and to form a nine-member board to support the work of the monitoring committee established in the existing peace charter.

Local agreement properties

Process type Formal structured process

Rationale The process that led to the signing of this agreement was supported by the Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue. This is an addendum to the earlier 'Peace Charter of the communes of Alafia Doukeire and Salam' of 28/01/2018.

Is there a documented link to a national peace process? No

Link to national process: articulated rationale	The agreement was negotiated outside of the national-level peace process as it deals with intercommunal, local conflict. The parties to this agreement are not part of the national-level peace negotiation framework.
