Process type Formal structured process

Rationale	The peace conference addresses what appears to be ongoing conflict between communities around the border between two of the main states in what was at this time the autonomous region of Southern Sudan. There is a clear attempt at a structured process in conference format across two days, supported by the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly and the UN.
Is there a documented link to a national peace process?	Yes
Link to national process: articulated rationale	Throughout the peace agreement conference there is general reference to the border delineations set out in the Comprehensive Peace Agreement and the Interim Constitution of the Republic of Sudan. Then explicitly, in the provisions of the Interim Resolutions to this Dispute, the reference provides a link as follows: Page 12, SUGGESTIONS FOR THE WAY FORWARD BY SSLA STANDING COMMITTEE FOR PEACE AND RECONCILIATION DRAWN FROM SUGGESTIONS OF THE MAIN SPEAKERS INTERIM RESOLUTIONS TO THE DISPUTE: I. The solution to the problem must be based on the CPA and Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan.

Mediator (references)	Page 2, PROCEEDINGS OF THE PEACE CONFERENCE, ... General James Wani made consultative arbitration between the two governors and aided by the Parliamentary Committee on Peace and Reconciliation. The said committee helped to prepare the ground for the start of the meeting the following day. This was done in order to develop the framework for the success of the settlement of the dispute. Page 2, CLOSING REMARKS BY HE. JAMES WANJ IGGA, THE SPEAKER OF SOUTHERN SUDAN LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY ON 06.09.2008, ... He defined the nature of the dispute as truly interstate boarder conflict that required good atmosphere of negotiation and arbitration. He said that any interstate boarder dispute in Southern Sudan is the direct responsibility of the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly, which has in place a Specialized Committee headed by Honorable Mary Nyaulang. He went on to express that this Committee was comprised of members who were not a party to the conflict. Page 3, 1.
