

Peace Agreement Access Tool PA-X <https://pax.peaceagreements.org/>

Country/ entity	South Sudan Sudan Darfur
Region	Africa (excl MENA) Africa (excl MENA) Africa (excl MENA)
Agreement name	Juba Declaration on Dialogue and National Consensus
Date	30 Sep 2009
Agreement status	Multiparty signed/agreed
Interim arrangement	Yes
Agreement/ conflict level	Intrastate/intrastate conflict (Sudan Conflicts (1955 -))
Stage	Implementation/renegotiation
Conflict nature	Government/territory
Peace process	Sudanese (North-South) peace process
Parties	36 Participants [Most signatures in Arabic and illegible] Ali Hussein Dousha
Third parties	-
Description	Re-affirming, re-negotiation agreement touching on the important of National Dialogue and Consensus, National Reconciliation, renewal of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement (CPA), importance of democracy, and the economic and social situation.

Agreement document SD_090930_Juba Declaration on Dialogue and National Consensus.pdf  | Download PDF

Women, girls and gender

Participation	Participation→Effective participation Page 3, PREAMBLE The aim is to ensure full implementation of all peace agreements and all constitutional arrangements prescribed in the Interim National Constitution (INC), 2005; including respect for human rights and the rule of law, political empowerment of women, conduct of free and fair elections, holding of referendum for the people of Southern Sudan and popular consultation for Southern Kordofan and Blue Nile States. The commitment to resolve the conflict in Darfur is duly emphasized. Participation→Other Page 4, 1. DIALOGUE AND NATIONAL CONSENSUS 1.1. The APPC maintains that the process of forging national consensus requires open dialogue without prior conditions or exclusion of any party. The APPC in Juba is the first such process since the signing of all peace agreements, particularly the Comprehensive Peace Agreement (CPA). There is need to continue this free democratic dialogue among all national forces, civil society and women organizations.
Equality	No specific mention.
Particular groups of women	No specific mention.
International law	No specific mention.
New institutions	New institutions→Infrastructure (general) Page 4, 1. DIALOGUE AND NATIONAL CONSENSUS 1.1. The APPC maintains that the process of forging national consensus requires open dialogue without prior conditions or exclusion of any party. The APPC in Juba is the first such process since the signing of all peace agreements, particularly the Comprehensive Peace Agreement (CPA). There is need to continue this free democratic dialogue among all national forces, civil society and women organizations.
Violence against women	No specific mention.
Transitional justice	No specific mention.

Institutional reform Institutional reform→Constitution-making/reform
Page 3, PREAMBLE

The aim is to ensure full implementation of all peace agreements and all constitutional arrangements prescribed in the Interim National Constitution (INC), 2005; including respect for human rights and the rule of law, political empowerment of women, conduct of free and fair elections, holding of referendum for the people of Southern Sudan and popular consultation for Southern Kordofan and Blue Nile States. The commitment to resolve the conflict in Darfur is duly emphasized.

Development No specific mention.

Implementation No specific mention.

Other No specific mention.
