

INTERTOGOLESE DIALOGUE

MEMORANDUM OF THE POLITICAL PARTIES
SIGNATORY TO THE GLOBAL POLITICAL AGREEMENT AND REPRESENTED IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

Ouagadougou, August 7, 2009

PREAMBLE

The political parties participating in the Intertogolese Dialogue and represented in the National Assembly,

- Meeting at Ouagadougou from August 4 to 6, 2009, at the invitation of His Excellency Mr Blaise COMPAORE, President of Burkina Faso and Facilitator of the Intertogolese Dialogue;
- Wishing to achieve a durable peace, to guarantee stability and the harmonious development of Togo;
- Referring to the Global Political Agreement signed on August 20, 2006, at Lomé between all the parties in the Intertogolese Dialogue;
- Committed to preserving and consolidating the achievements of the peace process launched by the Global Political Agreement;
- Taking note of the Final Communiqué of the 36th Session of the Conference of Heads of State and of Government of the Economic Community of West Africa (la Communauté Économique des États de l’Afrique de l’Ouest, CEDEAO) inviting President Blaise CAMPAORE to return to his facilitation mission in Togo;
- Determined to work together in a spirit of brotherhood and cordial understanding, to enable the organisation of open, free, transparent and democratic elections, which would signal a definite end to the crisis in Togo;
- Enacting decision no. C-003/09 of July 9, 2009, of the Constitutional Court on the law modifying the Electoral Code voted by the National Assembly on June 29, 2009;

Have agreed the following:

I. COMPOSITION OF CENI AND ITS SUB-DIVISIONS

I.1 The signatory parties to the present Memorandum have agreed on the composition of the National Independent Electoral Commission (la Commission Electorale Nationale Indépendante, CENI) as foreseen by the law modifying the Electoral Code, voted by the National Assembly of June 29, 2009, and on the procedure for appointing its members.

I.2 In order to ensure the proper functioning of CENI, the signatory Parties agree to strengthen the permanent administrative Secretariat tasked with providing technical support for the practical organisation of the elections.

In addition they have decided to call on the expertise of the Burkina Faso CENI and to request access to international experts in electoral processes.

I.3 In terms of CENI sub-divisions, the signatory Parties have decided to create as many as necessary to ensure the widest and most reliable participation of citizens in elections.

II. CONDITIONS OF ELIGIBILITY FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

II.1 The signatory parties to the present Memorandum shall work, within the framework of the laws currently in force and in accordance with democratic principles, to ensure open, free transparent and democratic elections.

II.2 They agree to comply with the conditions of eligibility foreseen in article 62 of the Constitution, and shall proceed to redraft certain provisions foreseen in articles 168.3, 170.2 and 170.9 of the Electoral Code, in order to enable potential candidates to contest the next presidential election.

III. TECHNICAL PROVISIONS FOR A PEACEFUL ELECTION

III.1 In order to guarantee proper polling procedures, the signatory parties to the present Memorandum agree that the polling stations shall be made secure.

III.2 The technical specifications of the voting cards shall be determined exclusively and independently by CENI.

III.3 The parties to the present Memorandum shall ask the Government to provide CENI with the necessary resources for transmitting the election results from the polling stations to the CENI offices.

III.4 In order to guarantee the transparency of the elections, the parties agree that they shall be open to national and international observers under the conditions foreseen by law.

To this effect, the international observers shall be accredited by CENI, at their request, by on the basis of a list prepared by CENI in collaboration with the Territorial Administration and other State services.

National observers shall be accredited by CENI.

III.5 The signatory Parties to the present Memorandum undertake to scrupulously respect the Code of Good Conduct recommended by the Global Political Agreement.

They invite the Government, the Parliament and all parties to the Global Political Agreement, to work together to strengthen the resources and the role of the High Audiovisual and Communication Authority (la Haute Autorité de l'Audiovisuel et de la Communication, HAAC), in order to facilitate the organisation of elections in a peaceful climate.

They exhort the Government to take all necessary measures to ensure that all political parties have fair access to State media.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS AND FINAL PROVISIONS

IV.1 Where difficulties arise in interpretation or implementation of the provisions in the present Memorandum, the Parties agree to refer to the Facilitator for arbitration.

IV.2 The present Memorandum commits the signatory Parties.
